

Hometown

Submission Deadline: Feb. 8, 2021 at 11:59 p.m.

Opening Date: Feb. 19

Exhibition runs through March 12

The Los Angeles non-profit auburn art gallery invites photographers from around the world to submit entries for its Hometown exhibition.

Home has always been important, but 2020 showed us just how important. We'd like for you to show us your hometown as you see it! Whether it's a city like L.A., Paris, Tokyo or Cape Town, or a rural town, village or otherwise – we'd love to see those images in our first exhibition of 2021.

It's the gallery's vision to bridge the gap between well-recognized photographers, excellent amateurs and those who are eager to learn. If you have a good photo, we'd love for you to submit. Simple as that!

Entry fee: $10 for 1 photo; $15 for 2 photos; $25 for 4 photos; $35 for 6 photos; $50 for 10 photos; add $5 for each additional photo.

How to submit: If you have photos that fit this theme, visit www.auburnartgallery.org/submissions. At that page, you can submit up to 5 photos and pay for your submissions. You may also send entries directly to matt@auburnartgallery.org. (To have your photos considered, you must pay the entry fee before the deadline. Accepted photographers will be notified 3 days after the deadline, and should keep an eye out for an email requesting additional information. Check your spam!)

Photo criteria: Matt Harding, founder of auburn art gallery, will choose roughly 25 photos for the exhibition. They will be selected based on quality and originality. All photographic work will be reviewed; however, photography must be the primary medium. The top three images will be recognized at the gallery and on our Flickr page.

Notes: There is no entry fee for members (see www.auburnartgallery.org/choose-a-membership for more details). Accepted exhibition entrants may print and frame their own work or have the gallery to do it for a fee (see our website's Submissions page for details). All photographers are encouraged to price their work for sale during the exhibition. The gallery retains 25% of sales (or get an even better rate by becoming a member). Email us with any questions.
