Submission Deadline: December 10, 2021 at 11:59 p.m.

Opening Date: December 20

Exhibition runs through January 10

The Los Angeles non-profit auburn art gallery invites photographers from around the world to submit entries for its Black & White exhibition. Whether you're shooting on black and white film or editing from digital – show us what you've got! Any and all of your best black & white images will be considered.

It's the gallery's vision to bridge the gap between well-recognized photographers, excellent amateurs and those who are eager to learn. If you have a good photo, we'd love for you to submit. Simple as that!

Entry fee: $10 for 1 photo; $15 for 2 photos; $25 for 4 photos; $35 for 6 photos; $50 for 10 photos; add $5 for each additional photo.

How to submit: If you have photos that fit this theme, visit www.auburnartgallery.org/submissions. At that page, you can submit up to 5 photos and pay for your submissions. You may also send entries directly to matt@auburnartgallery.org. (To have your photos considered, you must pay the entry fee before the deadline. Accepted photographers will be notified soon after the deadline and should keep an eye out for an email requesting additional information. Check your spam!)

Photo criteria: Matt Harding, founder of auburn art gallery, will choose roughly 20-25 photos for the exhibition. They will be selected based on quality and originality. All photographic work will be reviewed; however, photography must be the primary medium. The top three images will be recognized at the gallery and on our Flickr page.
