

Purple for Alzheimer's Awareness

Submission Deadline: Nov. 5, 2020 at 11:59 p.m.

Opening Reception: Nov. 21, 2020 from 7-11 p.m.

Exhibition runs through Dec. 5, 2020

The Los Angeles non-profit auburn art gallery invites photographers from around the world to submit entries to its Purple for Alzheimer's Awareness exhibition. Basically, submit any photos with the color purple – or portraits of someone afflicted by the disease, a family experiencing it, or related images.

November is Alzheimer's Awareness Month, and 100% of entry proceeds will benefit the Alzheimer's Association (www.alz.org). Additionally, 50% of printing fees will be donated.

How to submit: If you have photos that fit this theme, visit www.auburnartgallery.org/submissions. At that page, you can submit up to 5 photos and pay for your submissions. You may also send entries to matt@auburnartgallery.org. (To have your photos considered, you must pay the entry fee before the deadline. Accepted photographers will be notified 3 days after the deadline, and should keep an eye out for an email requesting additional information.)

Photo criteria: Matt Harding, founder of auburn art gallery, will choose roughly 25 photos for the exhibition. They will be selected based on quality and originality. All photographic work will be reviewed; however, photography must be the primary medium. The top three images will be recognized at the gallery and on our Flickr page.

Notes: There is no entry fee for members (see www.auburnartgallery.org/choose-a-membership for more details). Accepted exhibition entrants may print and frame their own work or have the gallery to do it for a fee (see our website's Submissions page for details). All photographers are encouraged to price their work for sale during the exhibition. The gallery retains 25% of sales (or get an even better rate by becoming a member). Email us with any questions.
